MESSAGE

I am happy to learn that the Shared Services Forum is organizing the 5th BPM and Shared Services Conclave-2015 and do hope that this is an event that will be a breakthrough in discussions on awareness and impact of Business Process Management through Shared Services.

The BPM & Shared Services Conclave event is a one of its kind in India and will serve as a tool to transform and improve the business efficacy. Such occasions provide an opportunity to introspect the achievements made and set new targets for future.

I extend my warm greetings and felicitations to all those associated with the Conclave in their effort to make this an event in which the participants will get a platform for sharing of knowledge, innovations and ideas.

I hope the Forum will achieve great success in the years to come.
