The event was organized by UBS Forums and the overall theme of the summit was – Redefining the Role of Future Ready Finance Leader.

The panel – CXO Talks: Conversation with Leaders on their Transformation Journeys – on the topic, ‘Transforming Finance Function from Cost Centre to Value Centre’ comprised esteemed industry leaders from various sectors – (sitting from Left to Right in the above photograph) – Rakesh Sinha, Founder & CEO of Quintes Global (P) Limited; Ashok Dhamakar, CFO of UPL Limited; Ajay Luharuka, CFO of Glenmark Pharmaceuticals Limited; Abhinav Jain Ranka, CFO of Pharmeasay; and Sudhir Singhvi, CFO of K Raheja.

The speakers shared case stories on successful finance transformation journeys and the future roadmap. The discussions on the role of Finance as a Function and hence the Finance Leader for future readiness, centred around 4 key impact points:

- Cost Optimization for the ‘New Normal’
- ‘New Normal’ demands – Data-driven Finance
- Managing the skill gap; Finance leader’s readiness for tomorrow
- Manage growth and protect profitability

Rakesh shared his perspectives through:

- ‘mantras’ that CFOs must adopt, to overcome existing business challenges in this disruptive and uncertain operating landscape, while driving transformation and optimization to enable Finance to move to a value centre; and
- ‘strategic business partnerships’ that CFOs can invest in for ‘relevant expertise’ supporting both cost control and growth agenda simultaneousl.

Quintes Global (P) Limited was the ‘Knowledge Partner’ at this summit.
